

#29: Patrick First Physically Challenged/SCI Quadriplegic Athlete to Carry Olympic Torch in Olympic Relay

June 2004: Patrick was the first physically challenged/SCI Quadriplegic athlete to run and carry the Olympic torch in the Olympic relay.

His future wife came to see him carry the torch through Clayton, MO. His two daughters, lovely young women, came as well to cheer their father on. That led to a bit of family confusion! (Read more in Green Bananas, Pat's new book).
